About this Event

As Europe stands at the crossroads of change, the need for greater insight by the UK into legal developments on the Continent becomes increasingly clearer.

There is much merit in the UK doing its part to ensure that work at home follows the same trajectory as that in other European jurisdictions. Similarly, lawyers on the other end of the Channel have signalled their eagerness to be kept abreast of developments in various legal fields in the United Kingdom and to actively engage in issues that affect Europe as a whole.

The European Law Institute

Founded in 2011, the European Law Institute (ELI) offers itself as a forum for such discourse. The Institute is an entirely independent organisation that aims to improve the quality of European law, understood in the broadest sense. This it does by initiating, conducting and facilitating research, making recommendations and providing practical guidance in the field of European legal development.

As topics worthy of globalised standards, the ELI has become increasingly active in the emerging areas of digitalisation and data and is pleased to partner with one of its Institutional Observers, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, London, a leading fintech firm, in organising this event.
