Declaration

I have provided the above information truthfully and will stand for ELI Council elections subject to the rules and procedures laid down in the ELI Statute and the Election Byelaw. In addition, I agree for all the information provided in this form to be made available to all ELI Members.

I acknowledge that the Council elections will take place in Vienna from 6–7 September 2023 and that the results will be announced on 7 September 2023 and communicated to all ELI Members in writing thereafter.

Were I to be elected a Council Member, I would accept the appointment.

Nominations and Endorsements

Each candidate must receive endorsements from five other ELI Fellows in order to stand for election. There are three ways of securing these. Please tick your preferred option:

- I hereby hand in my nomination form accompanied by five endorsements from ELI Fellows and consent to the ELI Secretariat uploading the form onto a closed elections platform.
- I hereby hand in my nomination form. I will contact five existing ELI Fellows who will endorse my nomination by sending an email to elections@europeanlawinstitute.eu by 18 July 2023. I therefore instruct the ELI Secretariat not to upload my nomination form onto the closed elections platform until my candidacy is fully endorsed. I acknowledge that my candidacy will be invalid should it not be endorsed in time by five ELI Fellows.
- I hereby hand in my nomination form and ask the ELI Secretariat to invite endorsements from five ELI Fellows visiting the closed elections platform.

Unless instructed otherwise, nomination forms will be uploaded onto an electronic platform accessible to all ELI Fellows. Once a candidate has received five endorsements, no further endorsements shall be accepted for that candidate. A document indicating the number of endorsements received per candidate will also be uploaded with the names of endorsers being visible only to the Returning Officer and staff at the Secretariat.

The platform will be updated once every working day.

Candidates cannot endorse their own nominations. Each ELI Fellow may endorse an unlimited number of candidates.
