

Council Decision CD 2026/2
of 16 March 2026
on the Membership Admission Procedure

In accordance with Article 11(5) of the ELI Statute, the Council adopted hybrid model under which the Membership Committee would retain primary responsibility for assessing applications, while the Council would be involved in cases raising particular sensitivities or objections. This approach was considered to strike an appropriate balance between efficiency and oversight.