

Digital Law Speaker Series

European Law Institute – Digital Law Special Interest Group

Summer 2022

Call for Proposals

Dear Colleagues,

we hope you are doing well and staying safe.

For this summer, the European Law Institute's Digital Law Special Interest Group is planning a new Digital Law Speaker Series on current topics of law and digital technology.

The online events will run from May to July 2022 and take place every other Wednesday at 5 pm CET. Each session will run for one hour. Speakers will present for up to 20 minutes, followed by Q&A and a general discussion with all participants.

We invite anyone interested to submit a proposal for a session. All topics related to the regulation of digital technologies are welcome, including, for example:

- Data Protection;
- Free Flow of Data, Access and Portability;
- Supply of Digital Content and Digital Services;
- Internet of Things;
- 3D Printing: Challenges for Contract, IP and Tort Law;

- Artificial Intelligence;
- Online Intermediary Platforms;
- Smart Contracts;
- Blockchain Technology;
- Virtual Currencies; and
- Online Dispute Resolution.

If you are interested in presenting works in progress or recently published papers, please submit a short abstract to us (christoph.busch@uos.de, alberto.defranceschi@unife.it) by 8 April 2022 and include two options for dates that work for you. The following dates are available: 4 May, 18 May, 1 June, 15 June, 29 June, 13 July 2022.

We look forward to hearing from you and to starting the Digital Law SIG Speaker Series in May.

Kind regards, and stay safe,

Christoph Busch and Alberto De Franceschi
