

Young Lawyers Award

9th ELI

Interleges

ELI's Young Lawyers Award aims at providing the young legal community in Europe with a mechanism to propose practical suggestions for the improvement of European law, as a way of giving voice to future European legal experts and to helping ELI in fulfilling its core mission of improving the quality of European law.

Applicants must be currently undertaking a university law degree, whether undergraduate or postgraduate or be within five years of being awarded a law degree at the date by which entries must be submitted.

Candidates must submit a unique and original paper which was not previously published and deals with a European legal issue that could be improved. The contribution must be submitted in English.

Papers have to be submitted by 30 April each year, alongside the application form, to secretariat@europeanlawinstitute.eu

- Extract of paper published in the ELI Newsletter and on ELI's website
- Best efforts to get the paper published in UNIDROIT's Uniform Law Review, an Oxford University Press Journal
- Presentation of the paper at the ELI Annual Conference
- EUR 1,000 cash, in addition to travel expenses of up to EUR 500 covered
- 5-year ELI membership
- Up to 3 months paid internship at a law firm affiliated with Interleges

The Jury of the ELI Young Lawyers Award is drawn from ELI and other participating institutions. It is selected by the ELI Executive Committee every two years.
