

International Economic Law: New Challenges and Perspectives Speakers

The conference will feature several distinguished speakers, including Giulia Pairona (RP Legalitax), specialising in commercial and corporate law with a focus on M&A transactions; Francesco Abbate, an expert in international economics; Mario Eugenio Comba, specialising in comparative economic law; and Francesco Riganti, focusing on financial markets law.

Additionally, Cinzia Morrone, partner at Cattaneo & Zanetto, will provide insights from the lobbying sector. Cristina Martinetti (ELEXI) will address international contracts and arbitration, alongside Professor Alessandro Cogo, with a focus on WIPO arbitration.

On sustainability in international economic law, contributions will come from Agnieszka Gąsiorowska, as well as academics such as Lorenza Mola, Sondra Faccio, or Lorenzo Cotullo, with Fabio Santacroce also participating.

For the discussion on cross-border M&A and corporate crisis strategies, the speakers will include Ravinale Baldassarre Pereno e Associati law firm, Professor Maurizio Borghi (Web and e-commerce law), Riccardo Russo, and Desana.