

SUSTAINABILITY IN THE FOOD CHAIN

Workshop of the European Law Institute Portuguese Hub
ELI Annual Conference, Dublin, Ireland
October 11, 2024, 5:30 PM - 7 PM

ELI

EUROPEAN
LAW
INSTITUTE

PORTUGUESE HUB

Program:

- Challenges in the Sustainability of the Food Industry
- "Farm to Fork" Strategy
- Environmental Claims and Alternative Proteins
- Legislative Discussions and Future Challenges

Keynote Speaker: Francesco Montanari - Lawyer specialized in Agro-food Law (Lisbon and Bologna Bar Associations), Director of the Lisbon office of Arcadia International, Researcher in Food Law at Wageningen & Research University and Nova School of Law.

Discussants:

- Nuno Nobre - Consultant on sustainable food systems, project manager at the UN and EU, professor at Lusófona University and founder of the World Food Institute.
- Rute Saraiva - Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Law of the University of Lisbon, Member of the Joint Experiment of Crop Assessment and Monitoring (JECAM), the global R&D network of the GEOGLAM (Global Agriculture Monitoring) initiative by the international GEO consortium; of the F3 – Food, Farming and Forestry College of the University of Lisbon and the Interdisciplinary Agro-Food and Forestry Thematic Network of the University of Lisbon.
- Filipe Furtado - Quality Assurance Analyst and Automation tester for an open source e-commerce platform focusing on short food supply chains, with specialization in Data Analytics and Interoperability.
- Inês Saraiva - Doctoral Researcher in Sustainability Sciences (REASON | Resources, Food, and Society), designed within the Food, Farming and Forestry (F3) College of the University of Lisbon, currently writing a thesis on nutrition focusing on ultra-processed foods.

Moderation: Graça Enes and Marta Santos Silva

Free attendance but registration required by the 9th of October 2024: portuguesehub.eli@univie.ac.at

Organization: Marta Santos Silva and Graça Enes

Executive Secretary: Ana Filipa Ribeiro